

Bellshill Chess Club Privacy Policy

This policy explains when, how, and why we collect personal data about our members.

Who we are

Bellshill Chess Club (<https://bellshillchessclub.wixsite.com/bellshillcc>) is a chess club playing at:

Joe McKay Community Centre
Liberty Road,
Bellshill,
ML4 2EU

How we collect your information

The only information we obtain about our members is provided by them directly. We do not collect personal data simply as a result of a person visiting our club. Members and others have the option to sign-up to the club's blog on the club's website. All personal information will be used for the specific purpose(s), i.e. membership management, participation in club and league events and the club's blog and will not be disclosed to anyone or group beyond Bellshill Chess Club other than the chess organisation(s) in which the club participate and Chess Scotland for grading purposes.

How your information is used

The personal data we obtain is applied for the following purposes, namely to:

- (a) Obtain payment of membership fees to fund the operation of the Club.
- (b) Register members to play for Bellshill Chess Club in competitions which Bellshill Chess Club enters.
- (c) Submit results of matches played for grading purposes to the associated chess organisation in which Bellshill Chess Club participates.
- (d) Submit results of internal club competitions to Chess Scotland for grading purposes
- (e) Communicating with members for the purposes of running the chess club, including selecting and organising teams and other chess events.
- (f) The contact details provided to us by members may be used to contact them by mail, telephone, or e-mail for the purposes of the Chess Club.
- (g) The contact details of club officials, including match captains will only be published on the club's website with their explicit agreement.

We will hold personal data for as long as a person is a member and for a reasonable time after they leave the club.

This data is held pursuant to the legitimate interests of Bellshill Chess Club which is the basis on which your data as set out is processed.

Who can access information?

Unless required by law, we do not sell, rent or otherwise share personal data with other third parties.

Rights

Members can ask for a copy of the data we hold about them. If a member provides information about another person, it will be necessary, in these circumstances, for the club to seek explicit consent from the individual for processing after the initial collection.

Should you have any unresolved complaints about the way we process your personal data, you have the right to make a formal complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites. This privacy policy only applies to the use of our website. We cannot be responsible for other websites even if accessed via links on our website.

Review of this policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on our webpage. This privacy policy was last updated on 5th February 2019.

If you have any questions about this policy, please contact:

Jim Cumming (Secretary) (BellshillChessClub@gmail.com)